The executive chair reported on the work of the executive office (the executive chair, the treasurer, and the secretary/administrator). A power point presentation was made available by the executive chair to the participants.

The executive committee reported on the WSA 2019 financial report which has to be audited before the end of June. The finance committee is currently working on the reserve fund policy document. The purpose of the policy is to ensure the stability of the mission, programs, employment, and ongoing operations of the organization.

The secretary/auditor reported on translation services that is used by WSA executive office; on new standard of fees for translators; and the need for more translator in other than Spanish and French language. The secretary finalized the biannual registration of WSA Inc. online with the office of the Department of Consumer and Regulatory Affairs (DCRA) and reported its change of registered agent's address to the Department of the Treasury, Internal Revenue Service (IRS). The secretary is currently updating registrations/ renewals of websites and hosting, and trademarks globally.

The executive chair touched on the preparation for WSA Archives fundraising, listening calls on issues in some national committees, drafting template for country constitution based on the Subud Indonesia Articles of Association. Suyono also recounted his visit to Ibu Rahayu, when he was invited to meet her in Pamulang and Ibu Rahayu spoke to him of her receiving about the Pandemic.

The WSA and Dewan of IH initiated to have more social interaction in the meetings (especially during this pandemic). After the business session was done in 30 minutes., the Dewan of International Helpers, lead the participants to each share their personal experience, their working environment and the hopes they have in relation to that. The social gathering (sharing) session was continued on 26 April. A total of 32 members got the chance to share their personal current condition facing the pandemic. The meeting was closed to observers.
