COUNCIL NEWS

September 2021

- WSA Board of Directors Meeting – 18 September

The monthly WSA board meeting in September by Zoom was attended by Representatives of the Zones, International Helpers, the WSA team, and translators for Spanish and French. In total the monthly zoom meeting was attended by 23 participants. The meeting discussed in length the travel for the IH Dewan to meet in Portugal this October. In particular, discussed were the risk of the travel and the possible cost. The board decided on a general policy treatment of Board Restricted Funds and Donor Restricted Funds to be approved by a board resolution. With the end of the fiscal year coming to an end, and with every budgetary planning, the board talked about preparatory matter for MSF grant to WSA allocated for Archives and IH Travel. The Treasurer, Hannah Baerveldt updated on the WSA new account with Fidelity. At the end of the meeting, the board observed and reviewed the list of MSF trustee candidates. The meeting was adjourned after almost four hours.

- White Book Team Meeting - 25 September

Monthly White Book team meeting was attended by Zone 1&2 Rep (Mughtar Rawlings), as invitee. Mughtar was invited to give his comments on the current draft. His main comments were about the definition of National Council and National Committee. The team also agreed to insert a paragraph on consensus decision making in Subud Organization and compliment it with an excerpt from Y.M. Bapak's Talk 64 MLG 1.
